

Entry Form

1. Your current location:
2. Years in architecture:
3. Are you currently practicing architecture? If not, why?
4. What is your current project? (Please define the term "project" however you wish.)
5. What is an unrealized project that has helped form the way you consider and/or practice architecture?
6. What specific topics within architecture would you like to see more openly discussed?
7. Who are/were your role models or mentors in the profession?
8. If you had to select a single moment in architecture -- a specific building, a text, a practice, or a technological innovation -- that has strongly influenced how you practice, what would you chose?
9. Is your current or most recent romantic partner in the design field?
10. How important is one's biography (background, gender, sexuality, age, etc.) to the architecture once produces?
11. Is the status of women within architecture any different from what you see in other professions?
12. Is it relevant to talk about an "old boys'" network when discussing architecture today? Is there a glass ceiling in architecture? A glass facade? A glass _____?
13. What does the statistic "13.3%" mean to you?

And 1/3 of a question:

I wish you had asked me about _____ because _____.